Baltic Coast and Pommerania

About 500 km long are the broad and shining beaches of the polish Baltic Coast – from island Wolin to Zalew Wiślany. This bike tour leads you from Werften and the river Oder in Stettin to the hanseatic metropolis Danzig, the so-called pearl of the Baltic Sea. Enjoy the landscape with the dunes of Łeba, the forests and the breath-taking lonesome landscape of the Pommern region. You cycle towards Gdąnsk and get to know this hanseatic metropolis from its best side – with its precious alleys and beautiful church.

Itinerary

Day 1 Arrival to Stettin

Individual arrival to Stettin until the afternoon. Welcome briefing at 5 p.m. in the hotel. End your day with a city tour to the places of interest – Haken- and Odertrass, palace or lively historic district.

Day 2 Stettin – Cammin approx. 45 km

After breakfast journey by boat or train to Świnoujście. Distribution of the rental bikes before you cycle through the scenic forests of the national park towards Misdroy. In this popular health resort the first guests walked along the promenade already in 1830. From the pier you will have a breathtaking view onto the unique cliffs. Enjoy the view onto the Baltic Sea during a coffee break at the beach. Then you cycle along beautiful bike paths, through deep forest and along idyllic lakes through the national park. Overnight stay takes place in Cammin.

Day 3 Cammin – Baltic Sea – Kolberg approx. 45-60 km

Before departure you should definitely visit the gothic cathedral and the mystic monastery garden. Afterwards you cycle along the forests to the sea with its white sandy beaches. From there you continue to the probably most stunning lighthouse along the polish Baltic Sea. You will cycle along the most magnificent beaches to Kolberg.

Day 4 Kolberg - Osieki/surroundings approx. 50 km

After breakfast you leave the small town by bike heading for the coast. You cycle via Wicie and along the coast through villages like Jarosławiec.

Day 5 Osieki/surroundings – Slowinski Nationalpark approx. 45 km

Today your tour to Rowy is awaiting you. Enjoy the beautiful landscape on your tour through the Slowinski national park. You continue to Czolpino with its lighthouse and a marvellous view through the dune landscape. Pure nature all around ! On by bike to Kluki and its outdoor museum, afterwards transfer to the former fishing village Leba.

Day 6Rest day at the Baltic Sea

The so-called polish Sahara is unique in Europe and inviting you for a bath in the Sea today. Relax at the beach or explore the Slowinski national park. Stroll through Łeba. You can of course use your bike the whole day.

Day 7Leba – Gdansk approx. 40 km

After breakfast bus transfer to peninsula Hela. Along the way you can visit the palace of family Krockow (facultative) from 14th century. It was renovated several times. As it looks today it has looked like since the 19th century. In the afternoon bike tour across the peninsula, afterwards you continue by boat to Gdansk. Probably the most beautiful way to travel into the precious Hanseatic city.

Day 8Individual departure or additional stay

Individual departure or possibility for additional days in Gdansk.

The route

A bike tour through mostly flat and sometimes hilly terrain. The bike routes lead along asphalted roads with less traffic and gravel roads.
