

Lake Garda - based in one hotel

Relax alongside the banks of the Lake Gardasee

Trento, Verona, Mantua and Brescia.

Lake Garda is not only the largest lake in Italy, but also the gateway to the ‘Dolce Vita’ for numerous holidaymakers. Trentino, Lombardy and Veneto share the emerald green landscape near the Alps which is a scenic jewel for cyclists. But only a few holidaymakers will experience Lake Garda as you do during a cycling holiday. The scent of cypresses in the nose and the Mediterranean landscape all around you make this trip unique. You don't have to do without city pearls either - the historic cities of Trento, Verona, Mantova and Brescia ensure that.

Itinerary

Day 1 Arrival Desenzano

Information on the tour and bike fitting. We recommend taking a stroll through the old town.

Day 2 Trip to Trento | approx. 50 km + Boat Excursion and transfer

The day starts with a transfer by minibus to Trento (old town with cathedral, castle Buonconsiglio). Then, you will follow the river Adige via Rovereto to Mori. From here, you will cycle westwards in the direction of Lake Garda. After a short climb, you will cycle downhill towards the lake in Torbole and further to Riva. From here, a boat will then take you down the entire length of the lake and back to Desenzano.

Day 3 Trip to Verona | approx. 55 km + train journey

You will take the train to Verona in the morning. The city of Romeo and Juliet with its Renaissance palaces, the Roman arena, and the many cosy places invites you to stay for a stroll. Over gently rolling hills, past cypress trees and vineyards, the tour will take you back to the southern shore of the lake – for Goethe the lake was “a delicious spectacle”, for the Roman poet Catull “a shining star”.

Day 4 Trip to Mantua | approx. 65 km + train journey

Beautiful trails will lead you along the river Mincio southwards to Mantova. The thousand-year-old town of the royal Gonzaga family impresses its visitors with its art and beauty. The Castello S. Giorgio and the Palazzo Ducale, the Piazza Sordello with the house of Rigoletto, the cathedral, the Piazza Broletto with the old city hall, the Piazza Erbe with the courthouse palace, the clock tower, the rotunda of San Lorenzo, and the Basilica of St. Andrew are worth seeing. The train will take you back to your hotel.

Day 5 Trip into the history of Italy | approx. 50 km

Today, you will follow lonely roads, through vineyards, peach orchards, and kiwi plantations to Solferino – The place, where Garibaldi united Italy in the famous “Battle of Solferino”. On your way back to Lake Garda, you will cycle through the area where the delicious wines of Lugana are grown.

Day 6

Trip to Brescia

approx. 60 km + train journey

Today, you will ride your bicycle along the lake shore towards Cavallone di Riviera and get some unforgettable views of Lake Garda. Then, you will follow the Naviglio Grande Bresciano (canal with bike path) to Brescia – a city of Roman origin with many more places of interest. The train will take you back to Desenzano.

Day 7

Departure or extension of trip

The route

The terrain is flat to undulating. You cycle on cycle paths, minor roads and sometimes on country lanes. Please consider stronger traffic when entering and exiting cities.
