Rhine cycle path | Mainz - Koblenz

Rhine cycle path

From Mainz to Coblenz

The Romans have been here already 2000 years ago because of the thermal springs and the healing water from river Rhine. Today there are a lot of medieval fortresses, viniculture and well worth seeing cities as well. People are coming from all over the world to visit the Rhine valley between Mainz and Coblenz which is part of UNESCO world cultural heritage since 2002.

Itinerary

Day 1 Individual Arrival Mainz

Individual arrival to Mainz.

Day 2 Mainz – Rudesheim approx. 35–49 km

Welcome to the UNESCO world cultural heritage Upper Middle Rhine valley! Your first tour leads you through soft vineyards and well-known wine villages. If you want to visit Eltville or monastery Eberbach you have to cycle 14 km more. In Rudesheim you have several possibilities: a wine tasting, an excursion through the well-known Drossel, a relaxed journey by cable-car.

Day 3 Rudesheim – St. Goar approx. 34 km

Gorgeous fortresses are awaiting you today! We recommend walking up the Loreley where you will have a beautiful view towards the romantic Rhine valley.

Day 4 St. Goar – Coblenz approx. 36 km

Your route leads you to Boppard where you can go by chair lift up into densely wooded and silent altitudes. Or you visit Marksburg and castle Stolzenfels on your way to Coblenz.

Day 5 Individual departure or extension

The route

You cycle really relaxed in flat terrain.
