Tuscany charm

Eine der schönsten Landschaften

Even the great Goethe loved to travel there. To experience this landscape with its immense cultural heritage by bicycle is an unforgettable experience. Again and again the cycling tourist discovers wonderful historical monuments. As an opposite a typical Tuscan landscape offers often an ambience where you can enjoy seclusion. To discover Tuscany by bicycle is to cycle through regions that lie way off the tourists' paths.

Itinerary

Day 1 Individual arrival at Montecatini Terme

By car or train to Florence and on to Montecatini Terme, tour information and handing over of the bikes.

Day 2 Vinci approx. 55 km

By bicycle on small paths through olive groves of Montecatini Terme to Vinci, birth place of Leonardo, and back again to Montecatini Terme.

Day 3 Montecatini Terme – Pisa approx. 40-90 km

By bicycle (alternative by train) to Lucca, city tour by bicycle, and to the lake of Massacciuccoli (also known as Lake of Giacomo Puccini) and on to Pisa ("Piazza dei Miracoli", Schiefer Turm – aslant tower).

Day 4 Pisa – Casciana Terme approx. 50 km

From Pisa you cycle along the river Arno and then on lonesome paths to the idyllic spring town Casciana Terme.

Day 5 Casciana Terme – San Gimignano approx. 55 km

Today you cycle through vineyards and soft hills to San Gimignano. Every noble family owned here in former times his own tower – these towers of the houses now coin the place.

Day 6 San Gimignano – Siena approx. 50 km

Today's bike tour goes through Tuscany's wonderful landscape to the architectonic paradise Siena.

Day 7 Siena – Florence approx. 50 km

Through the hilly Chianti-region, where the "Chianti Classico" comes from you go to Greve. Afterwards you go by bus transfer to Florence.

Day 8

Departure from Florence

Individual departure, extension of your stay or combination with "Venice – Florence" and "Florence – Rome".

The route

Tuscany has a dreamlike but also hilly landscape. You cycle on lovely side paths and country lanes from one famous city to another. You sometimes will face with heavy traffic on entering or leaving a city.
