Dresden - based in one hotel

Bike trip to the Highlights of Dresden

You come and you want to stay. Dresden offers pastime for many vacation days. Structures with international importance like the Zwinger Palace and the Semper Opera shape this town full of art, music and theatre. Nevertheless it is worthwhile too to cross the town boundary sometimes for trips into the surrounding region. You cycle through romantic river valleys, see grand palaces, castles and attractive old towns. In the evening you always come back to Dresden. Your 4-star-hotel is located right beside the Elbe banks and offers modern hotel comfort in a heritage-protected building. Very stylish. Like all the things in this town.

Itinerary

Day 1 Arrival in Dresden

Individual arrival in Dresden. You get your bike (if booked) and important information about your cycle journey in the late afternoon. Use your time afterwards to go for a stroll through the old town of Dresden.

Day 2 Pirna

Alongside the Elbe and via castle Pillnitz the cycle way leads you till Pirna. Attractive is the old town with the market place and the St. Mary's Church. The Canaletto house in the town is dedicated to the painter Canaletto. Every Monday starting 14 o'clock you can take part in a guided city tour. (ca. 50 km)

Day 3 Radebeul and Moritzburg

Serpentine ways through romantic valleys lead you to the Karl May town Radebeul. From here the Lößnitz valley train takes you to Moritzburg, where you can visit the famous moated castle. Through the protected landscape Friedewald and the Moritzburger pond area you cycle back to Dresden. (ca. 45 km)

Day 4 Dresden

Start the day with a city tour, which will show you many sights of Dresden. The afternoon is dedicated to the wine of the region. A vintner from Dresden offers some good wines during a wine tasting to you.

Day 5 Meißen

On the Elbe cycle way you reach Meißen. In addition to the porcelain manufacture the cathedral of Meißen and Albrechts castle are worth seeing. This castle is said to be the first castle of Germany. A ship takes you back to Dresden in the afternoon. (ca. 25 km)

Day 6 Excursion with the S-Bahn (incl.) to Saxon Switzerland

Enjoy the view of the Elbe river from the bastion rocks, visit the Fortress Königstein with the wonderful panoramic view or take a short bike tour through the national park. The unique landscape has impressed generations of people! (approx. 20 - 40 km)

Day 7

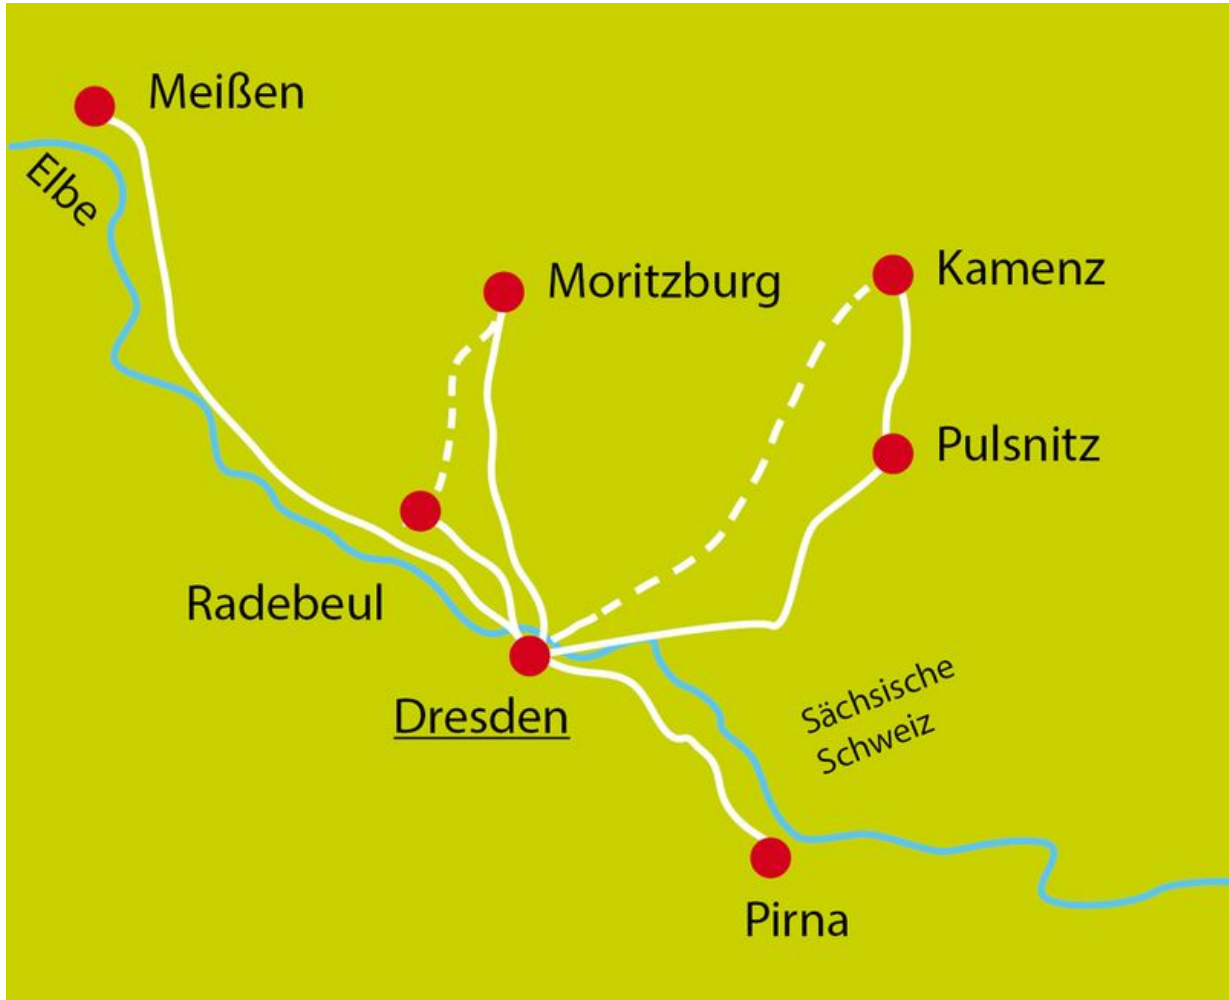

Return journey

Individual return journey or prolonged stay in Dresden.

The route

Easy. The Elbe bike route provides the opportunity to cycle along the loveliest and important fleets of Germany without traffic. Another route section leads along country roads with light traffic through varied landscapes.
