Romantic streets and bavarian lakes

An incredible tourist region

Glistening waterworlds and precious arts

No citizen in the middle Ages would have imagined that this road will become one of the most important holiday pathways in the future. The old trade route preserved its historical image and its romantic atmosphere throughout the ages. The Episcopal and the royal residence and the fairy tale Bavarian castles provide the surroundings for a relaxing bicycle tour.

Itinerary

Day 1 Arrival in Augsburg

Individual arrival in the Fuggertown Augsburg.

Day 2 Augsburg – Lake Wörthsee approx. 65 km

Tour information and bike fitting. Your first stage will take you through lush meadows and unspoilt Bavarian towns to Lake Ammersee. Cosy restaurants with sunny terraces and shady gardens on the lakeside invite you to stay and take a rest. Then you will continue your tour to Lake Wörthsee, which only needs the first spring sunbeams to warm up quickly.

Day 3 Lake Wörthsee – Murnau approx. 60 km

On the third day, you will pedal directly along Lake Wörthsee and Lake Pilsensee to the monastery of Andech. You will ride your bike through Pfaffenwinkel and past unspoilt Bavarian towns – the monks of the twelve surrounding monasteries contributed to the appearance of these places. Bathing facilities can be found at Lake Ammersee, but also at Lake Staffelsee and Lake Riegsee in Murnau.

Day 4 Murnau – Füssen/Schwangau approx. 60 km

Today, you will find magnificent grasslands and alpine romantic on your way to Füssen/Schwangau. On your way, you will be able to visit the world famous church Wieskirche – the epitome of Bavarian Rococo.

Day 5 Füssen/Schwangau – Schongau approx. 50 km

We recommend visiting King Ludwig's fairytale castles in Königswinkel – Hohenschwangau and Neuschwanstein – and the excavated Roman thermal bath at the valley station of mount Tegelberg. Via Steingaden and Peiting, you will cycle along the scenic Via Claudia Augusta to Schongau.

Day 6Schongau – Landsberg/Lech approx. 35 km

Schongau, a former Bavarian frontier fort with fortified passages on the city wall, testifies to the past. The splendid view of the Lech Valley promises greatness. The cities Altstadt (Roman basilica with vaults), Hohenfurch, Epfach (the Roman Abodiacum, Roman museum), and Vilgertshofen (Baroque pilgrimage church) are worth seeing before you get to Landsberg.

Day 7Landsberg/Lech – Augsburg approx. 45 km

You should not miss visiting the medieval city centre of Landsberg/Lech which is embedded in a wildly romantic river bed, the historic city hall, and the Gothic Bavarian Gate. Via Kaufering am Lech, you will pedal to Königsbrunn (with 11 kilometres in length the best-preserved section of the Via Claudia). Then, you will continue your journey to the old Bavarian duke city of Friedberg and further to the Fugger city Augsburg with its famous Fuggerei from the year 1516. Numerous monuments from all eras, such as Elias Holl's town hall, characterize the cityscape.

Day 8Departure

Individual departure or extension of your trip.

The route

Along the river Lech you cycle on bicycle paths and small country roads, through quiet and charming landscapes near the Roman road. This is a bicycle tour for everybody. From Imst / Hahntenjoch you go by transfer (2000 m) to Donauworth 400 m continuously downhill with short hilly passages.

The Romantic road or the German part of the Via Claudia Augusta is mostly offered from north to south. Between Fussen and Augsburg is a difference in altitude from about 400 m, so we prefer to cycle in this direction.
