

Fulda Cycle Route | Gersfeld to Hann. Münden

Fulda bike path

From the spring to Hann. Münden

Discover this idyllic river bike route, still unknown to most cyclists. Start in romantic Rhön at 950m and follow the well-signposted Fulda bikeway down into the valley. You cycle through meadows and fields, mainly directly next to the beautiful river. You pass beautiful half-timbered towns and cycle along the densely wooded Vogelsberg. Then you follow the asphalt bike lanes through the river valley. It's nice that you have enough time getting to know the manifold sights of this region! You will be crazy about the baroque quarter in Fulda, with a cathedral, castle, orangery and noble palace. The highlight is Hann. Münden, a half-timbered town of European status. Here at the confluence of Fulda and Werra your trip ends or you might prolong your cycling holiday along the Weser.
