Cycle tour along Bavarians Rivers

Let's go to Bavaria – the land of comfortableness and hospitality, the land of breweries, the land of history and of the Baroque. This tour leads you along the banks of the rivers – Vils, Naab, Danube, Altmühl, Pegnitz – through a special part of Bavaria. Take your time for the raw kindness of Upper Palatinate and the Franconian charm. Enjoy the titbits of the Bavarian cuisine in a real beer garden.

Itinerary

Day 1 Individual arrival in Amberg

Individual arrival in Amberg.

Day 2 Amberg – Regensburg approx. 65 km

You bike on the old railway route along the Vils to Kallmünz. Upper Palatinate occupied the position of an European iron centre in the late Middle Ages (hammer manor Theuern with a mining and industry museum). From Kallmünz you bike on the Naab Valley Bicycle Path to Regensburg.

Day 3 Regensburg – Kelheim approx. 35 km

You should have a look at the former imperial city Regensburg with its cathedral, city fortresses, dynasty towers, and last but not least, rock bridges. The Danube leads the way to Kelheim.

Day 4 Kelheim – Berching approx. 55 km

The Liberation Hall of Kelheim is famous. Also a worth experiencing is a boat journey on the Danube bursting and a visit to the monastery Weltenburg. The riverbed of the Altmühl is substituted by a 55 m broad Main-Danube-Channel between Kelheim and Dietfurt.

Day 5 Berching – Nuremberg approx. 60 or 80 km

With its city wall and thirteen towers is Berching a gem of the Middle Ages. Cycle along the Main-Danube-Channel to Nuremberg. At Pierheim you will reach the European watershed and with it the catchment area of the Main. "Ambitious" bikers may choose to bike through Neumarkt in Upper Palatinate along the old Main-Ludwig-Channel to Nuremberg (approx. 85 km).

Day 6 Nuremberg – Surroundings of Hersbruck approx. 35 km

Commerce and trade were at the heart of Nuremberg as it was the "Metropolis of the Middle Ages". This short stage makes it possible to enjoy Nuremberg in peace. The Pegnitz accompanies you to Hersbruck.

Day 7Surroundings of Hersbruck – Amberg approx. 35 km

To Hersbruck – young life in old walls – you bike again in the catchment's area of the Danube. Your tour ends in the early afternoon at the starting point of the journey – Amberg. Departure or extension!

The route

Except for slightly hilly at the last and the day before last the route is mostly flat; you bike on bicycle paths and side roads with little or no traffic.
