Itinerary

Day 1 Individual arrival in Magdeburg

In the late afternoon, the bikes will be handed out and you will receive important information from our tour guide. Afterwards you will have the opportunity to stroll through the beautiful former imperial city.

Day 2 Magdeburg – Tangermünde | approx. 70 km

Your journey takes you through small villages along the way with a detour to the Romanesque monastery church of Jerichow to Tangermünde. The town has preserved its medieval townscape to the present day. The medieval castle and the town, which was built under its protection about 800 years ago, are situated on a plateau above the distinctive floodplain landscape and the mouth of the small river Tangier into the Elbe.

Day 3 Tangermünde – Havelberg | approx. 50 km

The "Old Elbe" nature reserve offers a relaxing start to today's cycling day. The ride takes you past Storkau Castle to Havelberg, the "island and cathedral town in the countryside". Small, almost inconspicuous, it lies at the confluence of the Havel and Elbe rivers. The cathedral, built in Renaissance and Baroque style, and the pretty old town are certainly worth seeing.

Day 4 Havelberg – Gartow am See/Wittenberge | approx. 39-63 km

Today you cycle on a peaceful stage through the glacial valley of the Elbe to the small town of Wittenberge with its unmistakable panorama and the second largest tower clock in Europe. You continue into the UNESCO Biosphere Reserve Elbe-Brandenburg, through one of the most fascinating river landscapes in Germany, to Schnackenburg with its famous Borderland Museum. Overnight stay in the area of Gartow am See.

Day 5 Gartow am See/Wittenberg – Hitzacker | approx. 58-78 km

Today you follow the romantic meanders of the Elbe to the city of Hitzacker. The town lies on the "German Half-Timbered House Road" and has a picturesque old town with North German brick architecture.

Day 6Hitzacker - Lauenburg

approx. 55 km

The stage to Lauenburg is somewhat hilly. The old town silhouette framed by the banks of the Elbe is characteristic of the town. The castle with its mighty castle tower and the steeple of the Maria Magdalenen Church dominate the cityscape. The Fürstengarten (prince's garden) is very charming and the view of the nature reserves on the banks of the Elbe and far into the country to Lüneburg is magnificent.

Day 7Lauenburg – Hamburg

approx. 55 km

Bike friendly cycle paths lead along the Elbe via Geesthacht to the great port and cosmopolitan city of Hamburg with its numerous monuments, a great art and culture scene and a very unique atmosphere. You can find out about the current musical program on www.hamburg-travel.com.

[Optional for the tours ending in HH or we recommend an extra night in Hamburg to visit a musical]:

Day 8Hamburg - Glückstadt

approx. 56 km

You cycle along the Elbe Bike Path towards Glückstadt on an almost car-free route. On the way, you will pass Wedel with its ship welcoming system: every large ship that's arriving or departing is solemnly greeted with it's corresponding national anthem. You will then reach Glückstadt: historic houses and noble mansions characterise the almost completely preserved old town.

Day 9Glückstadt - Cuxhaven

approx. 58 km

The Elbe ferry (price not included) takes you across the river. You cycle through the district of Cuxhaven called "Cuxland", where traditional seaside resorts still attract numerous guests to the North Sea coast. Heath and marshland also make the land behind the dikes an experience. After your approximately 58-kilometre drive, you will reach Cuxhaven.

Day 10Individual departure

Individual departure after breakfast or start of your extension in Cuxhaven.

The route

Easy – A tour that's easy to cycle in flat to slightly hilly terrain. The Elbe bike path offers the opportunity to follow one of the most beautiful and important rivers in Germany. Other sections of the route take you along smaller country roads and little-travelled paths through the varied river landscape.
