The baltic coast cycle path | Lübeck - Stralsund

Lübeck - Stralsund

Explore the Baltic Sea cycle path! The way from Lübeck to Stralsund is really beautiful. Enjoy the hanseatic architecture, lively sea side resorts, beaches and the Baltic Sea breezes. This diverse cycle tour takes you through the unspoilt coastal landscape of Mecklenburg-Western Pomerania. It enchants visitors with fine sandy beaches, old seaside resorts, fishing villages and the unique Bodden landscape, as well as impressive cliffs and pine forests. Famous, once wealthy hanseatic cities with rich brick architecture and countless touristic attractions are to be found along the route.

Itinerary

Day 1 Individual arrival

The old magnificent Hanseatic town was named a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1987 and simply radiates charm. Most people associate Lübeck with the Holsten Gate, marzipan and Thomas Mann. But there is much more to see: the crooked brick houses, alleyways and courtyards, the town hall. And the fish rolls on the banks of the Trave at sunset taste particularly good.

Day 2 Lübeck - Boltenhagen/surrounding, approx. 30-45 km + ferry

This section goes through the spa town of Travemünde and continues along the Baltic Sea Cycle Route. Cycling through the Brooker Wald nature reserve, you soon reach Boltenhagen. The second oldest seaside resort of Mecklenburg attracts not only tourists – world sailing championships are held here too. Enjoy the charming inland area around the small town of Klütz.

Day 3 Boltenhagen/surrounding - Wismar, approx. 30-45 km

Mostly following the banks, you cycle to Wismar today, a time-honoured Hanseatic town. In the old quarter you will still find many brick buildings in the old Gothic style. By boat you can cross over to the island of Poel. It's worth the short trip, as not only do beautiful long sandy beaches await you but the historic city walls dating back to the Thirty Years' War contribute to the island's charm.

Day 4 Wismar - Bad Doberan/surrounding, approx. 45-60 km (+ ferry and train incl. cat. A)

Today you head for Kühlungsborn. Cliffs alternate with wonderful beaches for bathing. Visit the haunted forest, whose trees have all assumed weird and wonderful shapes from being exposed to the constant coastal winds. Stroll through Bad Doberan through the English park Kamp, or take the train named Molli to the beach.

Day 5 Bad Doberan/surrounding - Ahrenshoop/surrounding, approx. 30-60 km + ferry

Today's destination is the beautiful Baltic Sea baths of Wustrow and Ahrenshoop. The route from Warnemünde to the "High Dune" district of Rostock is covered by the ferry, the ferry price is not included (price approx. 2,50 € per person incl. Rad). Excursion Rostock from Warnemünde by S-Bahn possible.

Day 6Ahrenshoop/surrounding - Barth/surrounding, approx. 25-60 km

You have enough time to explore the Darsser Forest and the wild romance of the west beach, one of the most beautiful beaches in the world. From Prerow it can only be reached by foot, bike or horse and carriage – make time to go, it's worth it. Via Zingst your tour takes you back to the mainland to the former Swedish town of Barth with its many buildings dating back to the 13 - 18th century.

Day 7Barth/surrounding - Stralsund, approx. 45-60 km

The destination of your stage is another highlight of the holiday. Already from far away you'll see the three towers of the Hanseatic town of Stralsund. Its former importance as a trading town can still be seen in the historic quarter today. And because it has been so beautifully preserved, it is now a UNESCO World Heritage Site. You cannot leave before visiting the impressive museum of marine science.

Day 8Departure

After breakfast your tour along the Baltic Sea from Lübeck to Stralsund comes to an end. We would be happy to extend your holiday in Stralsund if you like.

The route

This tour is easy to cycle through flat and sometimes hilly grounds. You cycle mostly on side roads, country lanes, bike path and forest roads.
