Itinerary

Day 1Arrival Potsdam

Individual arrival to Potsdam. In the afternoon is the information briefing and the distribution of the rental bike (if booked).

Day 2Around Potsdam

Today you have enough time to explore the different attractions of Potsdam by bike. Architects of different parts of Europe affected the cityscape, the Russian Alexandrowka or the dutch neighbourhoods of Potsdam, for example. Enjoy glamorous history in the mansion colony "Babelsberg" and the same-titled castle as well as the "Cecilienhof" and the world famous castle "Schloss Sanssouci". (approx. 25 km)

Day 3Havel and Wannsee

Cross the popular "Glienicker Brücke". This bridge is well known because of the replacement of Agents between East and West. You cycle through the surroundings areas of Berlin and Potsdam. This region was the destination of Theodor Fontane. Along the river Havel you cycle to the Wannsee. The way leads through the "Berliner Grunewald" and along the Havel bike path to "Gatow" which is famous for the church of the 13th century. In "Sacrow" waits the same-titled castle of King Friedrich-Wilhelm IV. Afterwards return cycle tour to Potsdam. (approx. 55 km)

Day 4Templiner and Schwielow lake

Not only Theodor Fontane was guest of "Caputh". The village belongs to the community of the Schwielowsee. You will be a guest of "Caputh" as well, before you are cycling along the Schwielowsee past Ferch to Petzow. The way leads to the picturesque town Werder. The town is centre of the fruit-cultivating. Past Geltow you cycle along the Havel bike path back to Potsdam. (approx. 55 km)

Day 5Berlin free disposal

Enjoy the day in Berlin.

Day 6

Departure

After breakfast individual departure or extended stay in Potsdam.

The route

An easy tour! You cycle mainly along country roads and bike paths, sometimes on cobblestone and along reduced-traffic routes.
