

Lake Chiemsee to Königssee

Bike trip to deep blue lakes and lofty mountains

Cosy atmosphere in Upper Bavaria!

Lake Chiemsee equals beauty in blue. The biggest lake in Bavaria, also called the Bavarian Sea, is embedded in a gorgeous natural world. This idyllic scenery has been appreciated equally by the ancient Romans, the archbishops of Salzburg and the Bavarian dukes. Experience history and stories around deep blue lakes, around Bavarian traditions and cuisine. On your bike you have tons of time to immerse yourself into this historic idyll!

Itinerary

Day 1 Arrival at Lake Chiemsee

In the evening welcome briefing and rental bike fitting. We recommend a first stroll along the lake.

Day 2 Around lake Chiemsee approx. 65 km

The Chiemsee circular path is beautifully designed. It leads you to secluded swimming bays as well as to densely populated lakeside resorts. Whilst cycling comfortably along the lakeside, marvel at the stunning views onto the lake. For extensive breaks along the way you come across many shady beergardens along the lakeside. You also have the option of shortening part of the daily tours by a special bike-bus (optional).

Day 3 Lake Chiemsee

There are countless possibilities to spend an enjoyable day at the 'Bavarian Sea'. For example take a boat ride to the islands 'Herrenchiemsee' (King Ludwig palace) and 'Frauenchiemsee'. Naturally there are numerous bathing spots for a relaxing day on the lakeside.

Day 4 Chiemsee – Inzell approx. 45 km

Gradually the mountains become higher and higher. The terrain of the cycling route however stays nearly flat. Through the 'Bergener moor' at the foot of the Chiemgauer local mountain, called 'Hochfelln' (1674m), the path leads you via Bad Adelholzen with its mineral spring to Siegsdorf. From there along the river red Traun onwards into the idyllic Inzell. Special artwork, called 'Lüftmalerei' on the flower-embellished houses are typical for this climatic health-resort.

Day 5 Inzell – Bad Reichenhall approx. 30 km

The route of the German Alpine road snakes tightly between mountains via Schneitzleuth along the river Saalach to Bad Reichenhall. Since 1890 Bad Reichenhall is an approved health resort and 'spa town'. The saline Bad Reichenhall markets its branded salt as 'Reichenhaller Markensalz' in all of Germany and beyond. Opportunity for a 'wellness day' or for a ride up to the 1600m high 'Predigtstuhl' with the world's oldest and legendary cable car.

Day 6

Bad Reichenhall – Berchtesgaden/Lake Königssee approx. 20/30 km

Short tour to Berchtesgaden. Opportunity for a visit to the salt mine Obersalzberg as well as the Kehlstein house. Alternatively cycle a few more kilometres to Lake Königssee with the option of a boat ride on this well-known lake and a visit of the monastery Bartholomä, situated at the foot of the phenomenal Watzmann massif.

The route

All in all, this tour is easy to cycle, with a few climbs, and only partly on hilly terrain. The route we have chosen for you is really beautiful and you will find yourself on bike paths, country lanes, and side roads. Very short sections have to be cycled on roads with more traffic.
