Lüneburg Heath Pure

Roundtrip through the Heath

The Highlights as a short tour

Swap your everyday life for a soothing pinch of idyll and romance. This short break in the Lüneburg Heath gives you plenty of opportunity to do so. The famous heather, fragrant broom and juniper bushes, quiet streams and moors, some of which are thousands of years old, characterise the landscape. Enjoy the view from the "Wilseder Berg" over wide expanses of land where heather sheep may be grazing. Look forward to drives through romantic hamlets and the play of colours of the flowering heath. You can experience it almost all year round. In the heath garden of the Höpen landscape conservation area, one of the 180 or so varieties of heath is almost always in bloom. Fairytale beauty.
