Muenster centre based tour

Münsterland based in one hotel

The region Münsterland is full of history and stories of European significance. The 30-year war ended here, the famous poet Annette von Droste Hülshoff lived and worked here. Last but not least, architects built many charming manor houses, castles and palaces here in equally charming landscapes, including the species-rich and varied Hohe Ward forest area. Get to know this fascinating region on daily trips from Münster. The city itself impresses with many historical buildings worth seeing as well as being a lively student city with a dense and lively cultural scene..
