

Görlitz - Berlin

A bike trip with a lot of Highlights

Oder-Neiße-bikeway, Spree Forest and Brandenburgische Lake District

There are lots of little features which form the region between Görlitz and Berlin. The Eastern part of Germany is well-known for its “Spreewaldgurken”, a special type of pickles. Some villages can be reached by barge only and the streets are signposted in German and Sorbian language. Your tour starts near the polish border and leads you through the Upper part of Spreewald, in parts through the region of “Niederlausitz” and along the Lake District of Brandenburg. Experience the Sorbian culture, Prussian brightness, attractive water areas and German history. You will enjoy relaxing, informative and exciting days.
